

Mission Statement for your Marriage!!!?

The business guru's, Zig Ziglar, Ken Blanchard, and Stephen Covey know that the key to success in business is to form a MISSION STATEMENT. Mission Statements are used with huge success in businesses, so why not form one for your RELATIONSHIP?

With a growing divorce rate of 50%, it is clear that something needs to be done to create successful marriages. What if we could apply the same techniques used to create successful business partnerships to our personal relationships? Stephen Covey, author of The Seven Habits of Highly Effective People says, "begin with the END in mind," meaning it is necessary to know where you are going in your business endeavor and to know the end result of your business before you even start.

The SAME applies for your RELATIONSHIP. "In order to be successful, couples must have a clear vision of where they want the relationship to go, and what they want the relationship to be," says Julianna Montgomery, who has been HAPPILY married for over ten years!!! "We are still completely in love like we were on the day we married," says Julianna.

Doesn't your relationship deserve the same SUCCESS RATE and strategy that has been applied to creating successful business partnerships? By creating a MISSION STATEMENT for your relationship you are ensuring that you won't be another divorce statistic!!!
